Attorney's Fees and Costs

DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On July 2, 2019, Patricia Tiedeman filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleges that she suffered from chronic left arm and shoulder pain and adhesive capsulitis as a result of an influenza vaccine administered on November 2, 2017. (Petition at 1). On June 8, 2021, a decision was issued awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the Respondent's proffer. (ECF No. 36).

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "§" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, dated July 27, 2021 (ECF No. 40), requesting a total award of $10,351.87 (representing $8,394.80 in fees and $1,957.07 in costs). In accordance with General Order No. 9, Petitioner filed a signed statement indicating that she incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. (ECF No. 40-3). Respondent reacted to the motion on August 10, 2021, indicating that he "does not object to the amount sought as it is not an unreasonable amount to have been incurred in this case." (ECF No. 41). Petitioner did not file a reply thereafter.

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $10,351.87 (representing $8,394.80 in fees and $1,957.07 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
